

Make your own Naaman puppet

What you need:

- Naaman character*
- Paper cup - blue to represent the water
- Stick - e.g. lolly stick, kebab skewer or similar
- Glue (or sticky tape)

*Use the link below to print off your Naaman character, or draw your own (needs to be double-sided with a sad face one side and a happy face the other).

What do:

1. Colour both Naaman figures in pencil or felt pens.
2. Fold the figures so you have one sad and one happy Naaman each side.
3. Place the stick inside the folded figures and glue or tape the two halves together.
4. Make a hole in the bottom of the cup (ask an adult to help you).
5. Feed the stick downwards into the cup and through the hole.

NOW, with the sad face showing, dip Naaman in the river 7 times...then twist the stick so he comes up with his happy face showing!
